

Figure S1. UPM Brassicaceae seed collections were stored in ultra-dry, cold conditions inside flame-sealed glass vials containing approximately 39 to 104 mg of dry seeds, together with silica gel, separated by a filter paper divider.