Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Social Sciences is an international, open access, peer-reviewed journal publishing the latest research across all disciplines of the social sciences, including anthropology, economics, law, linguistics, education, geography, history, political science, psychology, sociology, and related areas. The journal is especially interested in interdisciplinary research, and aims to facilitate the interaction and communication between different social scientific disciplines. The journal welcomes conventional length articles as well as shorter Research Notes or short articles, as long as they meet the journal's standards of quality and originality.

Aims and Scope

Social Sciences (ISSN 2076-0760) is an international, open access journal with rapid peer-review, which publishes works from a wide range of fields, including anthropology, criminology, economics, education, geography, history, law, linguistics, political science, psychology, social policy, social work, sociology and related areas, with an emphasis on interdisciplinary studies. With its fast but highly qualified double-blind peer-review process, our journal aims to present the most updated, intelligent and original cross-disciplinary research to not only academia but also the broader public, making the journal a dynamic platform for social sciences research and academic debate. To guarantee a rapid refereeing and editorial process, Social Sciences follows standard publication practices in the natural sciences.
